

USA Cycling-Collegiate
presents

Free admission!

Collegiate-Junior Recruiting

at the
2008 USA Cycling Cyclo-cross National Championships

The Lowdown!

Where: Homewood Suites by Hilton (next to Host Hotel)
7312 N. Polo Drive, Kansas City, MO 64153, (816) 880-9880

When: 7-9 pm, Saturday Dec 13th

What: Bridging the gap by connecting Collegiate Cycling and some of the best Jr cyclists in the US!

Did you know that there are cycling scholarships available, that you can race and attend college simultaneously, that CX greats like Tim Johnson and Todd Wells were once collegiate cyclists? Learn that and more at this session!

For more information:

Contact: Daniel Matheny
USA Cycling National High School & Collegiate Cycling
Manager
E-mail:
dmatheny@usacycling.org
Phone: 719-229-9780

Directions from course:

Proceed SW on NW Hampton Rd, turn East on Hwy 152, take exit for northbound I-29, take exit 10 for Tiffany Springs Pkwy, & proceed to the Homewood Suites by Hilton at 7312 N. Polo Drive, Kansas City, MO 64153.

Collegiate representatives:

Please RSVP to dmatheny@usacycling.org with "CX recruiting" in subject line and school name, name of team member attending, if you need table space for recruiting materials.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: Who should attend?

A: Any Jr or parent interested in Collegiate Cycling, any Collegiate cyclists interested in scouting new riders for your team.

Q: Why should I attend?

A: Collegiate cycling is a great development pipeline that allows student-athletes to excel.

Q: What can I expect?

A: A quick overview of Collegiate Cycling, the chance to mingle between Collegiate reps and Juniors present, and to explore the opportunities that exist.

Q: How long will it last, will I miss dinner?

A: 1-2 hrs and hopefully not if you eat before we start or like to eat late.