Road Season

1. The ITT does not count towards the individual omnium but does count towards the team omnium.

Mountain Season

1. Riders who lose a number plate during the course of the mountain season will be charged $5 to get a new one. Riders upgrading to a new category will not be charged. Riders who show that the plate was broken will not be charged.
2. Juniors and high school students will be allowed to participate in the mountain bike season but not in the "A" category races. They will be scored and places separately from the collegiate students and will not displace riders in the points scoring.
3. Enduros
 - a. Riders will be categorized based on their collegiate DH category
 - b. Events will carry the same points as other gravity based events
 - c. Participation in an enduro will qualify as a 1 start in a gravity event towards Nationals. It will not be considered as a DH start.

General Regulations

1. Team hosting events will be charged a $2.50 per collegiate rider per day fee for hosting events in the road, mountain or cyclo-cross season. This fee helps defray conference expenses such as staff travel as well as allow equipment purchases as needed.
 - a. For cyclo-cross season, if conference staff is not requested or required by the hosting team, a $25 calendar fee will be charged instead of the $2.50 charge per rider.
2. The conference board will provide a full accounting for expenses and income at the end of each academic year for all expenses during each season (mountain, cyclo-cross and road).
3. Allocations for each national championship will be announced by the week prior to the first event in that championship's season.
4. For events raced, together team omniums will be tabulated as a group and then split into club and varsity (meaning that only the first place rider and first place team receive full first place points – not the first place varsity rider/team and first place club rider/team).
